Seeing a Hygienist

Dental Hygienists are specially trained to work with the dentist in providing care to the patients. The hygienist's main role is to provide professional cleaning of the teeth for patients.

Regular professional cleaning combined with your home care will help maintain a healthy mouth. This will help to prevent any dental disease.

Courses

Hayley and Rachel have recently been on a Fire Marshall course which they both found very interesting. The practice always ensures that staff are kept up to date with new courses. The whole team had a fun but educational afternoon refreshing their knowledge on First Aid.
